

MACTA Horse of the Year Points: Updated 10/26/17

Unfortunately, Championship points were not taken into account for Heritage Park when the points system was published.

Therefore, the points for Championship divisions will remain the same as for regular divisions at Heritage Park this year.

We are aware of the discrepancy, however although it does not seem fair for those in the Champs division, it would also not be fair to change the points system used retroactively.
